

***PRESS RELEASE***PRESS RELEASE***PRESS RELEASE***PRESS RELEASE*****

MAYA Surbiton comes Runner Up at the “OSCARs” of the UK Curry Industry

For Immediate release:

MAYA Indian Restaurant in Surbiton came runner up in the “Best UK Newcomer ” category at last nights prestigious British Curry Awards, which was held at the Battersea Evolution in London.

The black tie event was hosted by none other than Sir Trevor McDonald OBE and is by far the most coveted awards ceremony in the UK Curry Industry calendar. The event was attended by over 1500 restaurateurs, MPs, celebrity guests including the RT. Hon. DAVID CAMERON MP leader of the Conservative Party and has been recognised by HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN AND PRIMINISTER GORDON BROWN.

Having been opened by brothers Shamim and Shahin Malek only 9 months ago, MAYA has achieved the recognition that it deserves by offering superior quality food that is created by master chefs who have worked in top London and international restaurants and by creating a venue that boasts the sophistication and elegance of any upper class City of London restaurant.

MAYAs proud owner Shamim Malek said “we have worked extremely hard to create a different take on what is traditionally associated with Indian restaurants and being a finalist at an event such as this in a such a short space of time only makes all the hard work so worthwhile. On behalf of myself and the team at MAYA I would like to thank our Customers and the British Curry Awards for recognising all our hard work”

MAYAs proud owners are thrilled that they have been recognised as one of the UK’s finest indian restaurants in this years Newcomer category at the British Curry Awards and is thrilled at being one of the only restaurants to be recognised in whole of Surrey.